

EPLI Helpline

RISK MANAGEMENT RESOURCE

BETTER PROTECT YOUR ORGANIZATION AGAINST EMPLOYMENT-RELATED LAWSUITS.

EPLI lawsuits are on the rise.

Legal action against employers related to Employment Practices Liability (EPLI) claims are on the rise, including allegations of sexual harassment, discrimination and wrongful termination. Not only could these claims cost your organization its reputation—they could cost you money and time as well. That's why many organizations are turning to EPLI insurance coverage to help them manage their risks.

The EPLI Helpline can help you be better prepared.

At Glatfelter, we're all about helping you proactively prepare and keeping you better protected against risks like this, long before a claim ever occurs. That's why when you purchase EPLI insurance coverage through us, as a policy holder, you'll also have access to an EPLI Helpline provided by Jackson Lewis that you can call for general information about a broad range of human resources and employment law subjects, including topics that tend to be at the center of employment-related lawsuits.

How can the EPLI Helpline assist my organization?

The Helpline is not intended to determine whether a specific action should be taken or to provide legal advice; it is meant to provide an excellent opportunity to obtain general information about a broad range of subjects. For example, while the Helpline cannot be used to determine whether it would be discriminatory for a particular individual to be denied a promotion, you can ask the Helpline what factors to consider when evaluating possible claims relating to a denial of promotion.

Ready to use the free EPLI Helpline?

Please call 866.758.6874 at any time, share a brief explanation of your question and an appropriate legal specialist will call you back within 24 hours to assist you.
